Haitong International Sponsored SCMP Charity Art Auction Dinner

Hong Kong, 5 September 2014 – Haitong International Securities Group Limited (“Haitong International” or the “Group”; Stock Code: 665.HK) sponsored and participated in the SCMP Charity Art Auction Dinner held on 3 September 2014. The Group invited a number of prestige corporate clients to join the dinner, prospering the art and culture development while supporting the philanthropic acts.

The auction, hosted by South China Morning Post (“SCMP”), has successfully raised HK$2.76 million of funds from all 16 meticulously selected art pieces which included paintings, photographs and sculptures created by local, Mainland and international renowned artists. All funds raised will be donated to 3 local non-profit organisations in Hong Kong, namely St. James’ Settlement, The Society for Community Organization and Tung Wah Group of Hospitals, and will be mainly used for assisting children and the elderly in need.

Stemmed in Hong Kong for over 4 decades, Haitong International has been placing huge concern towards the community development in Hong Kong by constantly contributing to the society. The Group’s persistence in implementing the corporate social responsibility has resulted in the recognition as the “Caring Company” by The Hong Kong Council of Social Service for 10 consecutive years since 2004. Haitong International is honoured to participate in the SCMP’s charity event, as it has not only supported the development of art in the Asia Pacific Region, but has also offered care and help to the needies. In future, Haitong International will continue to spare no effort in undertaking corporate social responsibilities in order to benefit the society.
